 - c. Agents splitting any "side" of a transaction (e.g. co-listing or selling) shall be allowed to claim the same percentage of the worth of the transaction as the commission they were paid.
 - d. Rentals shall be allowed to be computed at the value of the lease as commission is collected (i.e. one year lease @ $300/month = $3,600; a two year lease @ $300/month = $7,200 if total commission is collected immediately, or $3,600/year if commission is collected each year.)
 - e. Total dollar amount of commission collected and/or percentage charged as commission shall have no bearing on eligibility. Sale price of transaction or annual lease amount shall be the amount used in computing eligibility, except that any applicant having 75% of total volume in new home sales shall be allowed to use only 70% of the sales price of each new home transaction in computing eligibility.
